

It has been such a blessing not to have to answer the telephone all the time. I have no interest in any telemarketing offers and would never buy anything through such a call. I believe in making my purchases from the local businesses and therefore see no reason for receiving phone calls to make purchases. Please let the State of Indiana continue using the no-call system.

Sincerely,

Norbert Schaekel